Richmond Dispatch.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1879.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE DISPATCH IS LARGER THAN THE COMBINED CIRCULATION OF ALL THE OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPERS OF THE CITY.

Indications for To-Day.—For the South Atlantic and Eastern Gulf States, partly cloudy weather and areas of rain, with east to south winds, and in the last named district rising temperature and rising barometer.

For the Middle States, easterly to southerly winds, increasing cloudiness and areas of rain, a slight fall in temperature, and stationary or slowly-falling barometer.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.—S. A. M., 64; 9 A. M., 72; noon, 86; 3 P. M., 86; 6 P. M., 79; midnight, 67. Mean temperature, 75.

LOCAL MATTERS.

REGISTRARS AND JUDGES OF ELECTION.—Judge Christian has appointed the following registrars and judges of election for the approaching registration and election:

Clay Ward.—First Precinct: George J. Hooper, P. E. Gibbs, and D. Z. Craver. Second Precinct: A. L. Burford, C. V. Class, and William Flegelheimer. Third Precinct: E. M. Crump, John T. Butler, and George N. Gwathmey.

Monroe Ward.—First Precinct: F. T. Gwathmey, A. D. Chockley, and E. H. Smith. Second Precinct: Thomas W. Brockenbrough, John A. Bern, and William H. Trent. Third Precinct: D. B. Jones, Luther Martin, and Jacob Cobb. Fourth Precinct: Dr. John R. Garnett, T. R. Glazebrook, and Henry Miller.

Marshall Ward.—First Precinct: John J. Cannon, John R. Baker, and O. M. Stewart. Second Precinct: W. A. Lampkin, Albert Ellington, and W. J. Johnson. Third Precinct: John F. Stinberger, S. Wesley Farrar, and Roland Hill.

Madison Ward.—First Precinct: H. Tate Evans, John Blair, and Robert Caruthers. Second Precinct: George W. Johnson, John W. Scray, and E. L. Wigan. Third Precinct: James H. Pecor, James M. Macon, and Clodomer Burton. Fourth Precinct: R. T. Daniel, J. T. C. Daniel, and S. B. Clark.

Jefferson Ward.—First Precinct: John H. Beveridge and J. T. Pemberton. Second Precinct: George W. Williams, R. Fuller Gaskins, and Thomas H. Hill. Third Precinct: Dr. W. F. Richardson, Joseph J. Faudrey, and Thomas D. Payne.

Public Speaking at Smith's Store.—An immense crowd assembled at Smith's store last night to hear the debt question discussed. Huge bonfires were kindled, and great interest was manifested in the discussion.

Mr. A. L. Holladay presided over the meeting, and introduced as the first speaker Major John W. Daniel.

Major Daniel was greeted with tremendous cheers as he came forward, and in a speech of one hour and a half held the audience spellbound.

The meeting was kept up until midnight. It was a grand affair and will be the means of doing much good to the Conservative party.

THE CURTIS MONUMENT.—The monument to the memory of Charles C. Curtis will be raised over the grave at Hollywood to-day. It is granite, sixteen feet high, and bears the following inscription on its front:

In Memory of CHARLES CURTIS. Born February 28, 1854. Died March 3, 1879. In the 26th year of his age.

A tribute from his friends in appreciation of his pure and manly character. Spotless in life, untarnished in death.

PERSONAL.—BRIEFS.—Mr. W. H. Beveridge was tried by the Hanover court on the charge of selling refreshments at the bogus camp-meeting without license and was acquitted.

At a spelling-match one man spelled "pansip" and got beet. However, any cabbage-head might have known that.

"F" Company Association will have their semi-annual reunion and election of officers on Saturday night.

SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.—The Supreme Court of Appeals will commence its next session at Richmond on the 18th of November instead of the 5th of November.

POLICE COURT, Thursday.—Police Justice Joseph J. White presiding. Henry Brown (colored), charged with deceiving Judd Croxon. Case continued. Admised $100.

L. B. Go Quintini was charged with stealing a lot of brushes, of the value of $5, from Gust & Binswanger. Accused was on a drunken spree when the alleged offense was committed. The charge of theft was dismissed, and Quintini sent to jail for five days in default of surety to be of good behavior.

INCHON. Frees, a boy of fifteen, arrested as a vagrant, was sent to Superintendent C. P. Bigler.

Elizabeth Ware and Rose Richardson were fined $2 each for disorderly conduct.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.—Jacob Mitchell was arrested last night on the charge of stealing $20 from Mary Carter. Both are colored.

MAHONE'S GRIEVANCE.

The Notes between Generals Kemper and Mahone.

CARDS FROM MR. WILLIAM L. ROYALL AND JOHN S. WISE, ESQ., CONCERNING THE CORRESPONDENCE: THE CORRESPONDENCE ITSELF—GENERAL MAHONE'S COMPLAINT AND WHAT CAME OF IT—ABOUT THE CHALLENGE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN WRITTEN—INTERESTING DETAILS OF THIS FEATURE OF THE CANVASS.

Richmond, October 16, 1879. To the Public:

In the Richmond State of to-day Mr. John S. Wise publishes the correspondence recently held between Generals Mahone and Kemper, including that part of it which took place between Mr. Wise and myself. He also adds to it a letter written by him to-day, to General Early, which bears as follows: "Dear Sir: When we agreed that the correspondence between Generals Mahone and Kemper should not be published I had no idea that Mr. Royall would be furnished with copies of the letters to show to whomsoever he saw fit and excite public curiosity, feeding it with reports of all sorts."

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.—S. A. M., 64; 9 A. M., 72; noon, 86; 3 P. M., 86; 6 P. M., 79; midnight, 67. Mean temperature, 75.
